

Submitting Your Dependent Child Care FSA Claim

How To File a Dependent Child Care FSA Claim

To complete a Dependent Care reimbursement request (a claim), you must submit a Dependent Child Care FSA Claim Form along with an itemized receipt or provider certification that clearly shows an eligible service was provided. To complete a reimbursement request, you should:

1. Complete a Dependent Child Care FSA Claim Form
2. Attach itemized receipt(s) or have your Dependent Care Provider certify the expense(s)
3. Submit the form and documentation to ADP

The Claim Form must be completed entirely, dated and signed. Receipts must state the provider name, provider contact information, the dependent name, service dates (begin and end), a description of the service and the expense amount. A credit card receipt or canceled check is not adequate documentation. Credit card receipts often do not list the service provided along with a description of the service. This is why you must save your itemized receipts.

If your Dependent Care provider does not give receipts, you must have the provider fill in the begin and end dates for the service period(s), read the certification and sign and date the Provider Certification. Dependent Care claims cannot be reimbursed without proper receipts or provider certification.

You may submit up to four (4) expenses on a single Dependent Child Care FSA Claim Form, using a separate line for each expense. Please fax (fastest process) OR mail the documents, but please DO NOT DO BOTH. Be sure to keep a copy of your claim.

Place the documents in this order: Dependent Child Care FSA Claim Form first, then the receipt, if available. Please do not return the instruction pages with your claim.

Fax to: 866-392-4090 (toll-free) or 678-762-5900.

Mail to: ADP Claims Processing, P.O. Box 1853, Alpharetta, GA 30023-1853.

Why Providing Documentation Is Important

The IRS has provided strict requirements stating that expenses reimbursed through a Flexible Spending Account must be substantiated using itemized receipts or provider certification. All supporting documentation must reflect the provider name, provider contact information, dependent name, service dates (begin and end), a description of the service(s) and the expense amount(s). Dependent Care claims submitted without proof of expense cannot be approved for payment, per IRS regulations. If your claim is declined for improper proof of expense, or if the expense is deemed as ineligible, you will be notified by ADP via U.S. Mail Service.

Important Information About Dependent Care Claim Service Periods and Expense Reimbursement

IRS regulations place strict guidelines on reimbursements for Dependent Care expenses. The biggest point of confusion in these regulations is the difference between when an expense is paid versus when an expense is “incurred”. Per IRS regulations, expenses must be fully “incurred” prior to receiving reimbursement. This means the service must have been fully provided and completed for the claim service period. This is an important point for Dependent Care expenses because most providers require payment at the beginning of the service period. Remember, a claim service period is the timeframe for which you have paid the provider, services have been received in full and reimbursement is being requested. Claim service periods for Dependent Care expenses are typically weekly or monthly. Consider the following scenario:

Sara has a young son, Jeffrey, in daycare. Sara uses daycare services while she works, Monday – Friday. She pays her daycare provider weekly on Mondays. When she takes Jeffrey to daycare on Monday, January 4, she pays the provider for the week. The service period for which she is paying is Monday, January 4, through Friday, January 8. She is paying for services in advance because she pays on Monday but the service period is not complete until Friday.

According to IRS regulations, Sara cannot receive reimbursement for this expense until January 9, after the full service period (January 4 – 8) has ended and all services for the period have been provided in full. It is at this point that expenses are considered fully “incurred”.

Under these regulations, it is important that your receipts indicate the full service period covered by the payment, including begin date and end date. When completing your Dependent Care Claim Form, you should be sure to indicate the earliest begin date for all the service periods you are submitting for reimbursement and indicate the ending service date for each service period (see Page 3 for complete instructions).

NOTE: Claims submitted for future dates may be denied and will need to be resubmitted at a later date.

Resubmitting an FSA Claim When Additional Information is Requested

On occasion, you may be asked to resubmit a claim because information you provided was insufficient or you neglected to sign the claim form. In the event you are asked to resubmit a claim, you must submit a new claim form with the requested information.

Depending on the situation, it may not be necessary to resubmit the entire claim. For example, if you filed a claim with four expenses and only one expense required additional information, you would file a new claim for that one expense with its supporting documentation. You should not resubmit the entire claim with all four expenses as this will result in duplicating the other three expenses and you would receive a letter indicating that these expenses had been duplicated. However, if you forgot to include receipts or if you neglected to sign your claim form, it would be necessary to resubmit the entire claim with all its supporting documentation.

For questions or additional information on resubmitting claims, please visit www.flexdirect.adp.com.

Filing Multiple Expenses with the Same Service Date and Same Amount

There may be times when you need to submit multiple expenses for the same amounts that were incurred on the same date. For example, you have two children who are both in daycare. Both children have identical daycare expenses for the same service period. The ADP Claim System categorizes claims based on the service date and amount and then compares the date and amount to claims you have already submitted. By filing a separate claim form for each child, the claim that is received and processed second will be marked as a duplicate claim. Therefore, when submitting multiple claims with the identical service date and amount, you should submit the expenses on the same claim form whenever possible. This will help prevent eligible expenses from being inadvertently marked as duplicate claims.

In the event a valid claim is entered as a duplicate, please contact your Participant Solution Center to have the claim status corrected. You will receive a notification when a claim is marked as a duplicate. You can also verify the status of your claims at www.flexdirect.adp.com.
